

Fragrance of love

Collection of Poems
By Anshul Kaushik

From Poets Desk

This is my first collection dedicated for my LOVE I have some different outlook towards my life I am not saying here that I am the best but I am still learning This is my first experimentation with the English poetry In early days of my life two or three years back I have tried hindi poetry and I myself consider as a good hindi poet but now things have been changed in so many years I fall in love with one girl and from my hearts of my hearts I love her I have written these collection of poems for her as when I went for a trip I missed her a lot and hopefully if there remains the gods grace we will marry so wish us best of luck in life 😊 I am not a poet from my profession rather I am computer expert 😊

POEM ONE

Approaching towards Destination

I am Approaching towards destination
And thinking of little bit creation
There is only one thing in my mind
That my Mani at home will be hopefully fine
I am Staying here from past five hours
Thinking of my Mani with my mom together

My train is approaching very fast
Love for manika is Very vast
There are depths in my joys and sorrows
Why we are thinking of the world of tommorows

Tommmorow will be ours as sun will shine
Each substance of earth will say that you are mine

Tall tall trees and a sandy ground
A temple in between and devotion in mind
Earth is dry and windy is weather
My heart again say that we are together
Heaps of grass laying on ground
I fell you as you are around

Looking at your picture and thinking of you
I am thinking that I have love with you

You are my inspiration and my goals to achieve
We have little more goals to achieve
I am approaching towards destination
And thinking of little bit creation
There is only one thing in my mind
That my Mani at home will be hopefully fine

Poem two

You have to wait for me till I am back

You have to wait for me till I am back
The train again moves with some delay on track
Thinking of the time we spend together back
Just pass few days till I am back

My name on your lips and picture in your eyes
Your parents will say that there is something to hide
I will be back with more love and joy
Please dont pass your days without me with hve
and cry

You are my love I am your soul
Please dont left me ever alone
Mani please be patient and be calm

I can be back early if you want

You are so gorgeous cute and shy
I will say world that you are mine
We will live our lives together
Share our joys and sorrows together

Be as it is as you are now
My mani is so good and wow

Just wait for me as I will back soon
We can go then afterwards on moon

You have to wait for me till I am back
The train again moves from some delay on track

Poem three

I love you Every time

I love you every time
Weather in train or any time
You are my vodka my beer and my wine
I love you every time

I love you in hot and cold
I love you in every coal
If I m steam engine then you are my coal

I love you in joys and sorrows
I love you in yesterdays and tomorrows
You are my grapes orange and apple
I will make for you one temple

The temple has one love light shine
Each and every brick written that you are mine

I love you every time
In day night or afternoon time
We will eat drink sleep together
We will love whenever whatever
We will live our lives together
I love you every time
Weather its sunny or cloudy time
I love you every time

Poem four

The love I have to give you

The love I have to give you is so much
No one can love you as such
I love you from my hearts of hearts
The love I have to give you is so much

I care for you any time
The world is not enough for our love divine
One day you have to say that you are mine

Like train crossing the bridge saying something to us
That we have to left all obstacles as rest

The love I have to give you is so much
The universe is small comparatively to such

I will have one star for you in the sky
You have to think of me leaving the Why?

You are my life heart and soul
You are my wife my friend on the whole

The love I have to give you is so much
No one can love you as such
I love you from my hearts of hearts
The love I have to give you is so much

Poem five

The world without Love

The world without love is like hell
Where are people can say words but cant spell
Wait for a moment the cruelty increases
All the women and men will be freezes

The love is like a sparking ignition
Which gears the world in as it is condition
The world will stop and there will be situation
All people on earth will have starvation

Love cannot be explained in words
Words can be explained in form of love

Simple is the theory of true love
You have to give everything you have

Like train will stop before destination
The world without love is without creation

The world without love is like hell
Where all people can say words but not spell

Poem Six

Four letters changed my life

Four letters changed my life
Mani you are going to be my wife

The world is then changed for us
We are the only two of us

The four letters changed my life
Make me caring good and wise
I can be everywhere at same time
The creativity increases and world is mine

The power of love is so diving
It rules the whole mankind

I am waiting for you when you will come
So at my place we will have some fun

The destination is far but has to reach there
The fragrance of our love is everywhere

The train again starts from few minute rests
My mani I am giving you all the best

As four letters changed my life
I accepted you as my future wife
You are the creator of my four letters
I will never forget you and love you forever

That's the simple bond of letters
In real world these four letters matters

The four letters changed my life
Mani you are going to be my Wife

Poem Seven

Beyond the universe we will stay

Beyond the universe we will stay
We will make a house on the planets bay

We can live there forever
No one will disturb me and you
We are only among them few

The planet would cover with water and Ice
We can thus add spice to our lives
We will set up our own world
Where you and me with our own world

The sun will rise from the west

And we enjoy our life as rest

There is no work to be done there

Just you and me with our love every where

Will be a tree of love there

We will eat apples from where

We will travel in our space

If there remains gods grace

Beyond the universe we will stay

We will make a house on a planets bay

Poem Eight

To prove my love what would I say

To prove my love what would I say
I love you from the starting of the day

At nights in your dreams I love you in this way
Thinking of you forever in this way
Your cool cool eyes and the way you breathe
This will take me the way you need

If you dont understand you have to love
As it as simple the way you love

To prove my love what would I say
Loving and caring you in every way

I can think this way here
That someone my love is waiting for me over there

You come to me on a summer breeze
Keep me cool in your love then you softly leave

To prove my love what would I say
I love you in this manner in this way

I love you beyond life
Make all efforts to make you my wife

To prove my love what would I say
I love you from the starting of the day

Poem Nine

I will take you to the moon

I will take you to the moon
Very far beyond stars
We will go there very soon

The stars with us and moon in sky
Are asking the question why?

I will take you to the moon
Very far and very soon

We will be on the moon with lots of love
Lots of kisses and lots of hugs

You will be with me every time
Weather in day or evening time

We have there a lots of fun
Oh! My darling you are my man

When there will be night in the sky
We will make some love all near by

I will take you to the moon
Very far beyond stars
We will go there very soon

Poem Ten

Thinking for you all the time

Thinking for you all the time
Waiting for me all the time
The time will come when we will go
We will share the things we know

Where ever I think of you you are there
Sharing your love with me everywhere

I think of you in every heart beat
Hopefully we are now going to meet

I think of you when I am alone
Our love is like the precious stone
I will back early to home
The things will be better and sadness will be gone

Thinking for you all the time

Waiting for me all the time

Poem Eleven

Road for my Home

Across the meadows traveling through the jungles

Traveling thousand of miles across several cities

Traveling through the nature beauties

The road that goes far beyond

That is the road for my home

Traveling alone in day and nights

Passing away deep and heights

Following the steady and curve paths

Either in shine or in the dark

Thats the road for my home

There is mom waiting for me

My mani love is only for me

Traveling to destination at last
With changing the time and changing the paths
That's the road for my home
The road for my home is full of joy
Full of love of mani and I
The road is full of lights and poles
Approaching the road towards my goals
That's the road for my home

There in between bridges and towns
Number of rivers and number of sounds
The way that follow beyond the sky
The home is for you and I
That's the road for my home

Across the meadows traveling through the jungles
Traveling thousand of miles across several cities
Traveling through the nature beauties
The road that goes far beyond
That is the road for my home

Poem twelve

That's why I love you lot

Your black hairs and black eyes
Take away my dreams and sleeps at night
When you smile the way I feel
My hear then beats like fast moving wheel
That's why I love you lot
You are my cutie pie you are so hot

The way you walks as like a smoke
You had taken my heart in this way
When I am with you I am complete
The way you behave that's all what I need
That's why I love you lot
You are my cutie pie you are so hot

When you are sad what I feel
That I am not giving the love you need
You are my heart you are my soul
You are my baby you are my doll
That's why I love you lot
You are my cutie pie you are so hot

The way you talk is so sweet
You increase slowly my heart beats
I close my eyes and thinking of
You are there in a moment whatever I do
That's why I love you lot
You are my cutie pie you are so hot

Poem thirteen

A week without you

No concentration no jobs
Just thinking of you and you in my thoughts
My heart is just beating for you
That's how I spend a week without you

Picture in my eyes and thinking of you
Where ever I go just you and you
That's how I spend a week without you

Thinking of there my journey back
The moment without you I feel so bad
Wherever I go just you and you
That's how I spend a week without you

The work I thought left alone

Because you call me in my heart and soul
The word I think what not I can speak
That's how without you my whole week
Left the work I had started to do
That's how I spend I week without you

I want to say something but cant say to you
That's how I spend a week without you

Some words cant speak some words cant spell
The week without you somewhat like hell
I am thinking of just we two
That's how I spend a week with out you

Poem fourteen

Waiting for your call

Sitting in the train and passing my time
Waiting for a call on cell phone of mine
Waiting for your call like love light shine
My ears want to hear your sweet voice divine

Checking for my phone in every few minutes
Talking to you in dreams but not yet
The sound of train I think of the ring tone
I am finding by saying Where is my cell phone

I cant stay much without your voice
You can call me anytime its your choice
I know that you tried that for much
You got no time for calling as such

My network can lost at any time in drain
But I am waiting for your call here even in train
I want to hear your sweet voice
Want that gossips with spice

Sitting in the train and passing my time
Waiting for a call on cell phone of mine
Waiting for your call like love light shine
My ears want to hear your sweet voice divine

Poem Fifteen

I am missing something love of you

I am missing something love of you
The dream I dreamt before are without you

But now you changed my whole life
After you come my life as my wife

Nights are now shorter and days are longer
Thinking of you forever

My life is like hell before
After you come now it is spelled at shore

My love for you is like waves in the sea
Just to tell how my life would be

There is only happiness no hues and cries
We will travel beyond the skies

I love you in each and every day
Weather on beach or in the bay

I am seeing a light far off place
My love for you is unable to trace
That how much I love to you
I am just here thinking of me and you

I am missing something love of you
The dreams I dreamt before are without you

Poem Sixteen

The tree of Love

Few years back we had sowed seed
In the orchid where there are no weeds
That seed was of our love

The tree was watered by our emotions
And it is purely our creation
We had watered with our relationship
And make a strong bond with it

The tree then slowly slowly grown
And now our love is well known
The trees roots are deep inside
No one can cut trees like mine

The time is passing very fast
The tree is now huge and vast

Now we have apples of love on that
We can cherish the moment we get
Time will come when we will go
And one more tree we will so
